

We would like to test some new equipment from Corinex at our trial sites. These include a new gateway – MV-NR-GWY, a different Corinex LV Gateway and different Artech couplers. The reason for testing the new equipment is to provide better power masking, better notching and better BPL throughput.