

MODULATING SIGNAL DESCRIPTION

Modulating signal is a periodic biphasic pseudo-random noise (PN) generated from a 9-bit linear-feedback shift-register (LFSR) configured to produce a maximal length 511-bit pseudo-random binary sequence (PRBS). Thereby, the transmitted signal is analogous to a direct-sequence spread spectrum signal.