

From: David Petersen

To: Jose Trevino

Date: May 20, 2010

Subject: FCC file number 0206-EX-PL-2010

---

Message:

Raytheon BBN Technologies is supporting the DARPA program Wireless Network after Next (WNaN) which is to test a hand held radio that could be deployed to individual soldiers. In order to prove network scaling that is suitable for individual soldiers 50 radios will be tested which represents a reasonable Army fielding. The actual testing performed for this application will have a maximum of 50 radios, it is anticipated that fewer than 50 will be tested.