

Raytheon Missile Systems
KA2XAG
Experimental License Renewal
0233-EX-RR-2009

Exhibit 1: Point of Contact information and Navy Contract Number

Background:

This is an application to renew KA2XAG. In 2008, Raytheon Missile Systems filed a request to modify KA2XAG, and that modification was granted in April 2009. The proposed renewal will not change any of the technical parameters of the existing license. The exhibits filed in 0144-EX-ML-2008 provide extensive background on the experimental operations performed under this license. This exhibit only updates some administrative information on the license. In all other respects, the operations at the Raytheon facility and administrative information remain the same as are on the current authorization.

1. The point of contact for operations under this experimental license is:
