Subject: RE: File No. 0056-PL-2007, ReconRobotics, LLC

Mr. Kennedy -

On April 5, 2007, a revised narrative attachment was submitted for the captioned application. The April 5, 2007, narrative revised and superseded the original narrative which was submitted in February 2007.

Because the April attachment discloses all of the material from the February attachment, confidentiality is no longer sought for the February attachment.

The FCC may delete the February 2007 narrative or, alternatively, may remove confidential treatment of the same.
