

Directional Antenna Information

The requested directional antenna has a 47 degree half power beam width. The horizontal and vertical orientation will not be fixed as the antenna will be used in operation between mobile test units as appropriate for a path with the characteristics desired for the test.