

DIRECTIONAL ANTENNA INFORMATION

All antennas are vertically polarized and the x-polar discrimination to horizontal polarization is better than 15 dB.

According to the radio equipment manufacturer, the determination of the actual parameters are site and installation dependant and cannot be easily determined for the demo equipment as yet. Although the antennas can be physically with any orientation, the antennas will be initially mounted vertically for the demo equipment.