EXHIBIT NO. 1
FCC FORM 702
PART II
QUESTION NO. 8

ASSIGNEE'S PRINCIPAL BUSINESS

Westinghouse Airbrake Company's ("WABCO") principal business is the manufacture of value added equipment for locomotives and railway freight cars and passenger transit vehicles.

EXHIBIT NO. 2
FCC FORM 702
PART II
QUESTION NO. 20 (a), (d)

WABCO acquired all of the assets of Rockwell Collins, Inc., the assignor. The purchase was consummated in 1998. WABCO will continue to use Station KA2XYL in the business it acquired from Rockwell Collins, Inc., and will use and control the Station in that fashion.

EXHIBIT NO. 3
FCC FORM 702
PART II
QUESTION NO. 22

ASSIGNEE'S FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

WABCO is a publicly traded company with annual net sales of approximately $671,000,000. As of December 31, 1998 it had current asset of $263,000,000.

EXHIBIT NO. 4
FCC FORM 702
PART II
QUESTION NO. 23

STOCK SALE

No stock will be sold for the purpose of raising money to operate the Station.

EXHIBIT NO. 5
FCC FORM 702
PART II
QUESTION NO. 24

PUBLIC INTEREST

WABCO, the assignee, has acquired all of the assets of the assignor, Rockwell Collins, Inc. Accordingly, WABCO's ability to continue to use the Station in connection with the business activities acquired from the assignor will serve the public interest.