

Confidentiality Request IAW 47 CFR, Part 0.459(b)

(b) Except as provided in § 0.459(a)(3), each such request shall contain a statement of the reasons for withholding the materials from inspection (see § 0.457) and of the facts upon which those records are based, including:

(1) Identification of the specific information for which confidential treatment is sought;

- RF Exposure Analysis was submitted as a Saab AB PDF titled “Answer to 35 GOT. This document includes some Company Restricted operational details for the G4A radar. These details require confidentiality as the Saab concept is subject to competition and these details may cause competitive harm if disclosed to our competitors.

(2) Identification of the Commission proceeding in which the information was submitted or a description of the circumstances giving rise to the submission;

Information is being submitted as part of FCC application and was requested via additional FCC Correspondence concerning RF radiation exposure.

(3) Explanation of the degree to which the information is commercial or financial, or contains a trade secret or is privileged;

The referenced material information is considered privileged and was labelled by Saab AB as Company Restricted. Disclosure of the information could have significant financial impact on Saab AB and their projected future business in this market area.

(4) Explanation of the degree to which the information concerns a service that is subject to competition;

In both the domestic and international surveillance markets, this radar is projected to be a key solution in the future. This surveillance solution is expected to face competition from other major defense companies for market share with multiple alternative solutions already rumored.

(5) Explanation of how disclosure of the information could result in substantial competitive harm; Disclosure of information risks Saab losing competitive edge in market resulting in loss of potential future contracts.

(6) Identification of any measures taken by the submitting party to prevent unauthorized disclosure;

The information submitted as RF Exposure Analysis is marked according to internal company markings when stored electronically and/or when transferred between Saab and its partners. Additionally, the information is stored in electronic databases with limited accessibility on a need-to-know basis.

(7) Identification of whether the information is available to the public and the extent of any previous disclosure of the information to third parties;

The Exhibit has not previously been released to the public and is marked according to internal company markings when stored electronically and/or when transferred between Saab and its partners, who have the necessary contractual and NDA related documentation in place to prevent public disclosure. Information is stored in electronic databases with limited accessibility on a need-to-know basis. Any release to parties outside of Saab and its partners is done on as needed basis, once proper NDA and/or legal documentation is in place to ensure proper safeguarding.

(8) Justification of the period during which the submitting party asserts that material should not be available for public disclosure; and

Saab recommends the material be kept confidential for the 24 month period that covers the operating authorization of this FCC application.

(9) Any other information that the party seeking confidential treatment believes may be useful in assessing whether its request for confidentiality should be granted.

No.
