

Fee Exemption Request

We are conducting scientific research on measuring surface ocean currents using HF radar. This research may be used for student projects at Scripps Institution of Oceanography, University of California San Diego and California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo. We request that the fee for STA application be waived.