

Scripps Institution of Oceanography, University of California, San Diego requests a fee exemption from the STA license application based on its non-profit status as a state owned educational and research organization (University of California)