

Justification for Non-Fee Application

The Seattle-Tacoma International Airport is owned and operated by the Port of Seattle, a governmental entity. As a result, no fee is required with the submission of this application.