

Exhibit 1 - Government Project Description

The Three Dimensional Expeditionary Long Range Radar (3DELRR) is a transportable radar intended to replace the AN/TPS-75 and the AN/TPS-59, currently in use as the USAF's and USMC's principal long range ground-based sensors for detecting identifying, tracking and reporting aircraft in support of the Joint Forces Air Component Commander (JFACC).
CONTRACT No. FA8722-09-C-0001