

From: Kris Kroc

To: Jose Trevino

Date: October 05, 2012

Subject: FCC file number 0461-EX-PL-2012

---

Message:

This 915.37MHz transmitter provides a communication link between SpaceX's recovery boat and the Falcon 9 first stage after it has landed in the Pacific Ocean. Once the recovery boat is within two miles of the first stage, it will transmit several short instructions to speed up or alter the first stage automatic shutdown sequence.