

Request for Expedited Review

Because the satellite mission described in the Supplementary Statement is scheduled for launch as early as 10 December 2004, we request an expedited review of this application. We have previously contacted our Air Force spectrum management office and the FCC international office and have not received any other solutions for how to address this problem. A special temporary authorization for this mission will help make the mission successful.