Re: Notification of Surrender
Program Experimental Authorization WA3XCM

T-Mobile License, LLC (T-Mobile) hereby notifies the FCC's Office of Engineering and Technology that it no longer requires the program experimental authorization WA3XCM. Please cancel this authorization.

Due to a recent transfer of control of its corporate parent, T-Mobile filed an application to replace WA3XCM on April 1, 2020. That application was approved on April 13, 2020 (call sign WA3XDF). As a result, the legacy authorization WA3XCM is no longer needed.

Please direct any questions regarding this filing to the undersigned counsel for T-Mobile.

Respectfully submitted,

DLA Piper LLP (US)
