GOVERNMENT CODE
TITLE 4. EXECUTIVE BRANCH
SUBTITLE C. STATE MILITARY FORCES AND VETERANS
CHAPTER 431. STATE MILITIA
SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 431.001. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Reserve militia" means the persons liable to serve, but not serving, in the state military forces.

(1-a) "Servicemember" has the meaning assigned by Section 161.551, Health and Safety Code.

(2) "State militia" means the state military forces and the reserve militia.

(3) "State military forces" means the Texas National Guard, the Texas State Guard, and any other active militia or military force organized under state law.

(4) "Texas National Guard" means the Texas Army National Guard and the Texas Air National Guard.

Acts 1987, 70th Leg., ch. 147, Sec. 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1987.

Amended by:

Acts 2007, 80th Leg., R.S., Ch. 1381, Sec. 1, eff. September 1, 2007.

Sec. 431.005. LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b), a person who is an officer or employee of the state, a municipality, a county, or another political subdivision of the state and who is a member of the state military forces, a reserve component of the armed forces, or a member of a state or federally authorized Urban Search and Rescue Team is entitled to a paid leave of absence from the person's duties on a day on which the person is engaged in authorized training or duty ordered or authorized by proper authority for not more than 15 workdays in a federal fiscal year. During a leave of absence the person may not be subjected to loss of time, efficiency rating, personal time, sick leave, or vacation time.

(b) A member of the legislature is entitled to pay for all days that the member is absent from a session of the legislature and engaged in training and duty as provided by Subsection (a).

(c) A state employee who is a member of the state military forces, a reserve component of the armed forces, or a member of a state or federally authorized Urban Search and Rescue Team and who is ordered to duty by proper authority is entitled, when relieved from duty, to be restored to the position that the employee held when ordered to duty.

Acts 1987, 70th Leg., ch. 147, Sec. 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1987. Amended by Acts 1989, 71st Leg., ch. 441, Sec. 1, eff. June 14, 1989; Acts 1989, 71st Leg., ch. 1257, Sec. 1, eff. Oct. 1, 1989; Acts 2003, 78th Leg., ch. 175, Sec. 1, eff. Sept. 1, 2003; Acts 2003, 78th Leg., ch. 971, Sec. 1, eff. June 20, 2003.

Amended by:

Acts 2005, 79th Leg., Ch. 728, Sec. 8.003, eff. September 1, 2005.

Acts 2007, 80th Leg., R.S., Ch. 258, Sec. 10.01, eff. September 1, 2007.

Sec. 431.012. INTERFERENCE WITH STATE MILITARY FORCES. (a) A person who intentionally hinders, delays, or obstructs or who intentionally attempts to hinder, delay, or obstruct a portion of the state military forces on active duty in the service of the state in performance of a military duty commits an offense. An offense under this subsection is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, by imprisonment for not less than one month nor more than one year, or by both.

(b) The commanding officer of a portion of the state military forces parading or performing a military duty in a street or highway may require a person in the street or highway to yield right-of-way to the forces, except that the commanding officer may not interfere with the carrying of the United States mail, a legitimate function of the police, or the progress or operation of a hospital ambulance or fire department.

(c) During an occasion of duty, a commanding officer may arrest a person who:

(1) trespasses on the campground, parade ground, armory, or other place devoted to the duty;

(2) interrupts or molests the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms; or

(3) disturbs or prevents the passage of troops going to or coming from duty.

(d) The commanding officer may prohibit and abate as a common nuisance a huckster or auction sale or gambling on the post, campground, or place of encampment, parade, or drill under the officer's command.

Acts 1987, 70th Leg., ch. 147, Sec. 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1987.
