

Necessary Bandwidth Description:

The non-linear, frequency modulation chirp is limited in modulation bandwidth by both the extent of the encompassing bandpass filter and Hamming window and the transmitter input modulation card itself. Overall the maximum allowable pulse compression bandwidth for these systems is 10MHz.