Re: File No. 0002-EX-ML-2004, Call Sign WC2XVE

Dear Ms. Dortch:

The Boeing Company ("Boeing"), by its attorneys and pursuant to Special Condition 3 of the above-referenced experimental license, hereby submits the attached certification of Eutelsat SA ("Eutelsat"). As set forth in the certification, Eutelsat has notified all satellite operators with co-frequency operations within ± 6 degrees longitude of the Eutelsat SESAT satellite at 36° E.L. that the satellite is an authorized point of communications for the experimental operations authorized by the license. Eutelsat's notification provides the satellite operators with a general description of Boeing's experimental operations, as well as points of contact within Eutelsat and Boeing for the purpose of resolving any complaints of harmful interference.

If there are any questions regarding this submission, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Philip L. Malet

Dear Mr. Holman:

Pursuant to Condition 3 of the Experimental License granted to The Boeing Company ("Boeing") on January 13, 2004 (Call Sign WC2XVE, File No. 0002-EX-ML-2004), Eutelsat SA ("Eutelsat") hereby certifies that it has notified all operators of co-frequency satellites within ± 6 degrees longitude of Eutelsat SESAT at 36 degrees EL that this satellite is an authorized point of communication for certain aircraft earth stations that will test and demonstrate Connexion by Boeing two-way aeronautical mobile satellite services. Eutelsat has also provided these operators points of contact within Eutelsat and Boeing for the purpose of resolving any complaints of harmful interference, which the parties must resolve by adjusting or ceasing the operations authorized by the Experimental License.

Sincerely,

Kelly Cameron
