Request for Info - File # 0019-EX-ML-2006

---

Message:

Thank-you for identifying information missing from our application.

We have added the following information:

- attachment showing directional antenna information
- frequency data and emissions data
- government project description

We hope that the information provided is sufficient, but please do communicate with us should other issues arise.

Our plans are to begin testing at the end of February, and we gratefully request a prompt review of our application.
