Jose:

I'm sorry, I figured out what you meant. I have filed an Experimental extension under Section 5.61(b), as you have requested. It is 0154-EX-PL-2010, and the confirmation number is EL228581. I'm in Texas with my Mother who has been in the hospital and am a little distracted. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

As I explained in the application, the Applicant only needs a short extension to complete the original testing that was delayed while the Applicant imported and installed the equipment.

Thank you

Walt Steimel
