

MiTEE Cubesat – University of Michigan
FCC Fee Exempt Status

This application is being submitted on behalf of a university small satellite project with the intention of providing hands on experience to a team of engineering students. There are no commercial affiliations associated with the mission.