

Exhibit 1

This is a Russian line of sight data link using a monopole 1dB gain antenna. They wish to test it in home port prior to departure of vessels to the launch site. Transmission will be between the launch platform and the ship. The field strength at 1 Km is predicted to be <0.0002 v/m. The radios will be used continuously from the moment of ACS departure until launch.

7