

The antennas employed for this test will have a horizontal beamwidth of 60 to 80 degrees. The beam elevation is zero degrees (toward the horizon). The beam azimuth is random and depends on the direction of the other mobile unit. The antenna beam will be adjusted manually in azimuth to a direction toward the other mobile unit.