

Emissions Note:

The requested 50M0G1N emission is to support the temporary use of a RF channel sounder to study propagation along the experiment path. Long term deployment of the channel sounder is not contemplated at all.

Power levels requested for this STA are for measurement purposes only. They do not represent any values planned for system deployment.