

Description of Directional Antenna

We will use highly directional antennas pointed directly at our own Virginia Tech C-band facility, avoiding pointing in the direction of other C-band facilities. The width of the beam at the half-power point will be (3 - 360) degrees and the orientation in the horizontal and vertical planes would be (0 - 360) and (0 - 10) degrees respectively.