

Walt Disney World Company respectfully requests renewal of conventional experimental license WH2XIV to continue its program of experimentation to test and evaluate the use of GPS re-radiator equipment to further enhance or broaden the entertainment experience and to explore the potential benefits of incorporating GPS location-based technologies to provide a safer and more controlled environment within our boundaries.