

withdrawn

Anthony Serafini

From: James Whedbee [jamesewhedbee@yahoo.com]
Sent: Tuesday, February 28, 2006 9:24 AM
To: Anthony Serafini
Subject: RE: OET File #0395-EX-PL-2005

OK, thank you! Please consider the application withdrawn. Best wishes, James Whedbee...

--- Anthony Serafini <Anthony.Serafini@fcc.gov> wrote:

> Mr. Whedbee
>
> The callsign is generated in the ELS system for > coordination tracking > purposes. Unfortunately, I have gotten a negative > response due to > potential interference to existing licensed users > and we will not be > able to grant your request. I don't really have an alternative to > propose to you. If you still wish to pursue this, > you will need to do > some homework on candidate frequencies and > pre-coordinate them with the > regional FAA office prior to refiling.

> Tony Serafini

> -----Original Message-----

> From: James Whedbee [mailto:jamesewhedbee@yahoo.com]
>
> Sent: Monday, February 27, 2006 7:39 PM
> To: Anthony Serafini
> Subject: OET File #0395-EX-PL-2005

> Dear Mr. Serafini:

> I see that Experimental Application #0395-EX-PL-2005 > has been assigned call letters WD2XWK. What does > that > mean? Does this infer a grant of the application is forthcoming?
> Thank you!

> Best wishes,

> /s/ James Edwin Whedbee, M.Ed.
> Applicant

> _____
> Do You Yahoo!?
> Tired of spam? Yahoo! Mail has the best spam > protection around > <http://mail.yahoo.com>

Do You Yahoo!?
Tired of spam? Yahoo! Mail has the best spam protection around