Carl:

The purpose of this e-mail is to clarify the nature of the experimental authorization sought by XO Communications, Inc. (FCC File No. 0297-EX-PL-2004). XO intends to use the experimental authorization to test the technical viability and performance of the equipment in the frequencies. Due to the nature of the test frequencies as governmental frequencies, XO withdraws its request to use the experimental authorization for limited market studies. Please let us know if you need anything further from us before forwarding the application to IRAC.

Thanks,
Chris
