The next system upgrade should fix the problem. In meantime, I'll issue a supersede license to correct.

Dear Carl:

We noticed that the Form 703 application for the transfer of control of XonTech, Inc., licensee of Station WC2XKA, from XonTech, Inc. to Northrop Grumman Corporation was granted on September 22, 2003 No. 0003-EX-TC-2003/0007-EX-TU-2003). Subsequent to the transfer of control, XonTech, Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Northrop Grumman Corporation, but the license for Station WC2XKA should remain under the name of XonTech, Inc. Accordingly, we respectfully request that the licensee name on the authorization for Station WC2XKA, granted on September 22, 2003, be corrected and changed from Northrop Grumman Corporation to XonTech, Inc.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Vance
