

NECESSARY BANDWIDTH DESCRIPTION

Our experimental system will be a wideband UHF radar system that will evaluate foliage penetration capabilities. We intend to emit signals between 300 and 450 MHz. The 150 MHz bandwidth is necessary to meet range resolution requirements defined by the U.S. Air Force in the Request for Proposal for this Phase II Small Business Innovative Research Project.