Declaration letter

To Whom It May Concern,

We, HALOVIEW TECHNOLOGY CO., LIMITED hereby confirm for T PATHWAY 1080P Wireless Camera /107941, 107942, 107943 the following:

The module used in this product is a public material, and there are two antenna interfaces on the module. In this product, only antenna 2 needs to be connected. To avoid using another port, our company will take the following measures:

Measure 1: In terms of software design, only data of antenna 2 is read.

Measure 2: In the work guide, correctly indicate the installation location.

Measure 3: After product assembly, attenuation test will be further done. If the antenna is installed incorrectly, it can be screened out.
