

Orion Tune-Up Procedure

The transmitter's power output level is controlled by an Automatic Level Control (ALC) circuit. The Orion's maximum output power level of 32dBm is calibrated on each unit at the factory at the center frequency of 912.00MHz. The calibration accuracy is +/- 0.2dB and the power output level tolerance across the band is +/- 0.5dB.