

A close-up photograph of a red and black electronic device. The device has a black top section with a small circular hole. Below this is a red section with a white label. The label contains FCC ID information and compliance conditions. The device is positioned next to a black textured surface.

FCC ID: 2ABGLSW77774-2

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

(1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.