Dear Sir or Madam:

We, Beijing April brother Technology Co. Ltd. Hereby declare that product: Wristband Beacon, model: D01, is electrically identical with the same electromagnetic emissions and electromagnetic compatibility characteristics with the model AB Band which was tested by BACL, the results of which are featured in BACL projects.

There is difference in order to meet the needs of the market.

Their differences as the following:

The models: D01, Difference is color, the rest of the key parts, internal structure and function and the main models are identical, share same PCB layout and schematic, they just have different model name. Please contact me should there be need for any additional clarification or information.

Best Regards,
