Description and user manual

- PE177-C board
    - is a Bluetooth Low Energy serial communication gateway
    - is a daughter board connected to a mother board through UART communication
    - takes payload from UART to BLE and vice versa
    - can be configured by the mother board with specific UART commands
    - is either powered from the mother board or from a dedicated power source

    - will only be installed in Groupe SEB products, so there's no user manual for the module
    - will be installed in another device, as the FCC/IC IDs will not be visible the following wording will be added on the device exterior label :
        - Contains FCC ID: 2AGS8-PE177C
        - Contains IC: 20937-PE177C