Declaration Letter

We, Revolar Inc. would like to declare that we cannot place the FCC ID, and IC ID, and Model Name information on conspicuous location or external part of the device because of the following reasons;

1. Device's dimension is 33.06 x 26.86 x 8.73 mm. Because of this space constraints or limitation, it is very difficult to place those information on the external part of the device
2. Since the device is portable product, placing the mentioned information will degrade the aesthetic outlook of the device.
