A long, thin, cylindrical metal object, possibly a probe or a tool, lying horizontally on a light-colored surface. The object has a brushed metal finish and a small, dark, rectangular slot or hole near its center. A white rectangular box with a red border is superimposed over the object, containing the text "LABEL LOCATION" in red capital letters. The background shows a light-colored floor with some scratches and a blue horizontal line. In the top left corner, there is a small white container with some text on it. In the top center, there is a black office chair with blue legs. In the top right corner, there is a blue object, possibly a piece of equipment or a stand.
