Subject: Equipment remains un-changed.

Hereby we declare that the equipment "SmartPoint" to be certified under FCC ID: 2AIEO-SLSP by means of a Change ID application for Certification, is fully identical with the equipment originally certified under FCC ID: XGR-SP3000T. There has been no change in the design, circuitry, or construction, and the original test results continue to be representative of and applicable to the equipment. There are no cosmetic changes or model differences either.

Yours Sincerely,
