

First steps

Leash

If you get too far from your phone you may lose the connection with your band.

When Leash is enabled in the app. the band will notify you that it has lost connection by vibrating and flashing a blinking blue light.

How to re-connect? Get closer to your phone

The hand will try to re-connect

Pairing your band

- Activate your smartphone bluetooth.
- Hold one button on the band to switch into pairing mode. You will feel a vibration and will see a blue light
- Open ēlļu app.
- Choose and pair your band. The band will vibrate softly and the light will turn white.
- 5 Voila! You can start using your band.

Pairing the band manually

When the band has lost the connection with the app you can pair it manually.

Hold one button on the band until you feel a vibration and the light in your band turns blue. When the pairing is done you will feel another vibration and the light in vour band will turn white.

How to re-connect? ■ Hold one button

Charge your ēllu

The magnetic charger is really intuitive and easy to use!

How to place the band?

Just align the 2 pins on the same side

Checking battery life

You can check the battery life of your band by pressing on either button.

Low charge

How to check?

Press once

SOS. Sending an alert

If you are in danger or any

- 1 Press & hold both buttons for 2 seconds.
- 2 A vibration and a red

How to send?

■ Hold 2 sec

Calls and Pager

Calls. Whenever you receive a call, you will feel a series of long vibrations and will see a green blinking light.

Pager. Whenever you are paged, you will feel three short vibrations and will see a double green blink.

Notifications

SOS. Receiving an alert

- 1 You will feel a strong
- 2 Enter the app.

Alarm and Timer

You can set alarms and timers from the ēllu app.

In both cases, at the set time, you will see a white blinking light in the band and will feel a vibration.

How to stop it?

Press once

