

Justification for no antenna gain information
FCC ID: 2AOG9POP2023

As the antenna connected to the 433.92 MHz transmitter is integral and the output is measured as a field strength at a given distance, antenna gain information is, therefore, not required. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions.