We are seeking a Non-Routine Request for permanent confidentiality for our Users Manual exhibit. We don't intend to make the Users Manual public and is only to be made available for the technicians installing and network operators managing from a network operating center (NOC). The User's manual contains proprietary technical information intended for authorized professional technicians obligated under an NDA.

Sincerely,
