Read the entire User Guide to become familiar with the features of your OCU camera before using it. Failure to use the camera correctly can result in damage to the product, personal property and cause serious injury.

Be careful when operating your OCU action camera to avoid accidental injury to yourself and other people and objects in your environment.

Observe applicable laws and local customs when using your OCU action camera and accessories to avoid dangerous situations, interference with individuals' right to privacy and breach of local laws and regulations that may restrict photography.

Warnings:

The OCU battery is a Lithium-Ion battery. Do not disassemble, puncture, overheat or subject the battery to mechanical shock. Misuse may cause an explosion or fire.

In the event of a battery leaking, do not allow the liquid to come in contact with the skin or eyes. If contact has been made, wash the affected area with copious amounts of water and seek immediate medical advice.

Keep the OCU camera, batteries and the Magconn® cable out of reach of children. Seek medical advice immediately if a battery has been swallowed.

Do not place naked flame sources on or near the product. Do not expose batteries to heat or fire. Avoid storage in direct sunlight.

When charging the camera, do not handle the plug or charger with wet hands. Failure to observe this precaution could result in electric shock.

Cautions:

Always charge the OCLU camera using the Magconn® cable supplied. Using a charger other than an OCLU cable can damage the OCLU battery and could result in fire or leakage. Do not leave a battery on prolonged charge when not in use and unplug the OCLU during lightning storms. Do not use the camera if it has been damaged or altered in any form.

Do not open, disassemble or puncture the camera or cover any ventilation openings or the battery with paint or stickers.

Do not incinerate, crush, bend, deform, microwave or shred the camera or the battery.

Keep batteries in their original packaging until required for use. Keep batteries clean and dry. Clean with a dry cloth only. Do not store the battery with metal objects, such as keys and coins. If the battery terminals come in contact with metal objects, this may cause a fire. Dispose of used batteries safely.

Never keep or install batteries near any heat sources such as radiators, heat registers, stoves, or other devices that produce heat.

Your OCLU action camera lens is glass. Should the lens break, care should be taken to avoid injury from broken glass. Keep out of reach of children.

Notices:

Servicing is required when the equipment has been damaged in any way. Refer all servicing to an approved service provider.

Only use attachments and accessories approved by the manufacturer. When connecting the camera using the OcLink™ connector mount, do not over-tighten the mount.

Avoid exposing your camera or battery to extreme temperatures, as condensation may form on or within the product. Low or high temperature conditions may also temporarily shorten the battery life or cause the camera to temporarily stop working properly.

Use the microfiber cloth bag provided to clean the camera lens. If the camera or any accessories come into contact with salt water, rinse them thoroughly with clean water, making sure the back door is closed.

Protect your OCLU camera using the OcShell™ hardcase in environments and situations where there is a risk of damage from deep water pressure or fast-moving water during diving, surfing or wake boarding, or where collisions with a foreign object is likely.

Only use genuine OCLU batteries.

Handle the Magconn® cable with care and avoid it becoming pinched.
