NDA-Operational Description NDA

LONG-TERM CONFIDENTIALITY FOR INTERNAL PHOTOS AND USER'S MANUAL

Date: 2024-03-22

FCC ID: 2ASK53SM0065

To the attention of Federal Communications Commission
Authorization and Evaluation Division

KDB 726920 D01 "Equipment Authorization Confidentiality Request Procedures" Section II 3) The internal photos and/or user's manual exhibits may be given Long-Term Confidentiality under the following special conditions:

a) Internal photos

1. May be held Confidential if the circuit board or internal components are not accessible to users. For example, it is acceptable if the circuit board is enclosed in epoxy.
2. Also, it is acceptable if the device is not accessible to the public, for example, a device mounted on the top of a large tower (or in a fenced enclosure) such that it is only serviceable by professional designated technicians under a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA). All sales for these devices must be under a NDA restricting the disclosure of the propriety information, including internal photos.

b) User's manual may be held Confidential only when the manual contains proprietary technical information intended for professional technicians obligated under an NDA. All sales and distribution of the user's manual must be under an NDA that restricts the disclosure of the information.

c) In the application cover letter requesting Long-Term Confidentiality the following additional description (in item 7) and the NDA exhibit is required:

1. Describe in detail how internal photos and/or user's manual information are controlled to prevent them from becoming public or disclosed to unauthorized persons.
2. Describe how public access is restricted for products serviceable by professional designated technicians.
3. A statement that all sales of the non-consumer device will be under a NDA to include third party sales and that the final user of the device is subject to the NDA.
4. Provide an example of the NDA between the grantee and a purchaser. The request for Confidentiality must include the key terms of the NDA to ensure consistency between the two.

Response:

The internal photos and user's manual were requested for the long-term confidentiality in the letter for Request of Permanent Confidentiality submitted in this application. The rationales for such request are stated below.

This device requires professional installation, and the user manual contains proprietary technical information intended for professional technicians obligated under an NDA only

The User Manual and internal photos need to be held confidential as they contain proprietary technical information. They are controlled and only accessible to Nokia customers that have an NDA that restricts the disclosure of the information. All sales of this device are to customers that are subject to the NDA.

Public access to the product is restricted by the fact that the end product is a non-consumer product, housed in a sealed enclosure, mounted on a strand and is not field serviceable.

Further, the Applicant has spent substantial effort in developing this product, some aspects of which are deemed to be trade secret and proprietary. Having the subject information easily available to our competitors in this market would negate the advantage we have achieved by developing this product. Not protecting the details of the design will result in financial hardship.

In accordance with the procedures specified above, a sample generic copy of the Nokia NDA between the grantee and a purchaser is attached. Additionally,

*The Nokia product, the subject of this application, is not subject to third party sales.
The final user of the device is always a License holder/cellular operator.*

Sincerely yours,

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between

Nokia of America Corporation, having its principal place of business at 3201 Olympus Boulevard, Dallas, TX, 75019 ("Nokia") and _____ a corporation validly organized and existing under the laws of _____, having its principal place of business at _____ ("Company")

hereinafter referred to as "Party" or "Parties" respectively

WHEREAS:

- (A) For the purpose of discussions concerning _____ (hereinafter "Purpose"),
- (B) the Parties may, in conjunction with the Purpose and for their mutual benefit, disclose to each other information which the Parties regard as confidential and the Parties are willing to undertake to restrict the use and further disclosure of such information.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY AGREED:

1. "Information" shall mean any technical and/or commercial information relating to the disclosing Party's or any of its Affiliates' businesses, facilities, products, services, techniques and processes in whatever form, including but not limited to oral disclosure, electronic communication, demonstration, device, apparatus, model, sample of any kind, computer program, optical or magnetic medium, document, specification, circuit diagram, or drawing (including but not limited to information of a general nature or information not necessarily in the form as applied to wireless or fixed telecommunications systems) and visual observation of the aforesaid which is proprietary to the disclosing Party or to its Affiliates or to a disclosing Party's or its Affiliates' licensors, contractors or customers (hereinafter "Information"). For the avoidance of doubt, the existence and the contents of this Agreement and the discussions between the Parties related to the Purpose shall be considered Information as set out in this Article 1.
2. "Affiliate" of a Party shall mean an entity
 - (i) which is directly or indirectly controlling such Party;
 - (ii) which is under the same direct or indirect ownership or control as such Party; or
 - (iii) which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by such Party.

For these purposes, an entity shall be treated as being controlled by another if that other entity has fifty percent (50 %) or more of votes in such entity, is able to direct its affairs and/or to control the composition of its board of directors or equivalent body.

3. The receiving Party shall
 - a. keep confidential all Information received by it from the disclosing Party with the same degree of care as is used with respect to the receiving Party's own equally important confidential information to avoid disclosure to any third party, but at least with reasonable care;
 - b. neither disclose Information received by it from the disclosing Party to third parties nor use it for any purpose other than the above-mentioned Purpose without the prior written permission of the disclosing Party; and
 - c. undertake to institute and maintain, and/or cause to be instituted and maintained, appropriate data protection and security measures based upon the sensitive nature of the Information disclosed.

4. The Parties recognize that they are part of organizations of multiple legal entities in several jurisdictions and that it may be necessary for the Parties to provide Information to their Affiliates. For this purpose, the Parties agree (both as the disclosing Party and as the receiving Party hereunder) that
 - a. the Parties may disclose Information to their Affiliates but only to the extent that such Affiliate has a need to know for the purpose of carrying out the Purpose and provided that such Affiliate accepts confidentiality obligations similar to those contained in this Agreement and the receiving Party shall be held liable for any breaches of the obligations included in this Agreement by such Affiliate in the same manner as if such obligations had been directly assumed by such Affiliate; and
 - b. Nokia may disclose Information to its contractors, consultants and outsourcing partners to the extent they have a need to know for the purpose of carrying out the Purpose and provided that such contractor, consultant or outsourcing partner accepts confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those contained in this Agreement. Nokia shall be fully responsible and liable for any non-compliance by any contractors, consultants and outsourcing partners with the terms of this Agreement.
 - c. The Company may disclose information to its contractors, consultants and outsourcing partners listed in Appendix 1 hereto, to the extent they have a need to know for the purpose of carrying out the Purpose and provided that such contractor, consultant or outsourcing partner accepts confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those contained in this Agreement. The Company shall be fully responsible and liable for any non-compliance by any contractors, consultants and outsourcing partners with the terms of this Agreement.

Parties acknowledge that Parties' Affiliates may disclose Information directly to each other or to either Nokia or Company. Each Party shall ensure that its Affiliates treat any Information disclosed directly to them by Affiliates of the other Party or the other Party itself in accordance with this Agreement as if such Information had been disclosed directly by the Parties to each other.

5. Subject to the foregoing, each Party shall restrict access to Information received from another Party to only those of its employees to whom such access is necessary for carrying out the Purpose and advise such employees of the obligations assumed herein.
6. The foregoing obligations shall not apply to any Information which
 - a. is in the public domain at the time of disclosure or later becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the receiving Party; or
 - b. was known to the receiving Party prior to disclosure by the disclosing Party as proven by the written records of the receiving Party; or
 - c. is disclosed to the receiving Party by a third party who, to the receiving Party's knowledge, did not obtain such Information, directly or indirectly, from the disclosing Party; or
 - d. was independently developed (i.e. by personnel having either no access to the Information or only under the exceptions as set out above) by the receiving Party as proven by the written records of the receiving Party.

For the purpose of the foregoing exceptions, disclosures which are specific, e.g. as to engineering and design practices and techniques, products, software, services, operating parameters, etc. shall not be deemed to be within the foregoing exceptions merely because they are embraced by general disclosures which are in the public domain or in the possession of the receiving Party. In addition, any combination of features shall not be deemed to be within the foregoing exceptions merely because individual features thereof are in the public domain or in the possession of the receiving Party, but only if the combination itself and its principle of operation are in the public domain or in the possession of the receiving Party.

The receiving Party may disclose Information received from the disclosing Party if the receiving Party is required to do so by any ruling of a governmental or regulatory authority or court or by mandatory law, provided that written notice of such ruling is given without undue delay to the disclosing Party so as to give the disclosing Party an opportunity to intervene to e.g. secure an appropriate protective order and provided further that the receiving Party uses reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that the Information will be treated confidentially. Information which is disclosed in such a manner must be marked "Confidential". Notwithstanding the aforementioned, the receiving Party shall limit any such disclosure to that portion of the Information that is in direct response to such legal or administrative demand.

7. Neither Party shall make any publicity on, press release of or any reference to this Agreement, the other Party, or Information received from the other Party or the negotiations or cooperation between the Parties.
8. This Agreement shall come into force upon signature by both Parties and shall automatically terminate five (5) years later or at such time as the present Agreement is expressly superseded by a subsequent agreement between the Parties hereto, whichever is earlier.

Notwithstanding the above, the rights and obligations set forth in this Agreement which have accrued prior to termination shall survive the termination or earlier expiration of this Agreement for a period of five (5) years.

9. The disclosing Party may request at any time in writing from the receiving Party that the receiving Party at its discretion either return or destroy all Information received from the disclosing Party and stored electronically and/or on record-bearing media as well as any copies thereof. The receiving Party shall confirm in writing such destruction or return the Information as well as any copies thereof to the disclosing Party within fourteen (14) days after receipt of the disclosing Party's request.

The provisions of Article 9 para. 1 hereof shall not apply to copies of electronically exchanged Information made as a matter of routine information technology backup and to Information or copies thereof which must be stored by the receiving Party according to provisions of mandatory law, provided that such Information or copies thereof shall be subject to an indefinite confidentiality obligation according to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

10. Neither this Agreement nor disclosure or receipt of Information shall constitute or imply any promise or intention to make any purchase of products or services by either Party hereto or any commitment by either Party hereto with respect to the present or future marketing of any product or service or any promise or intention to enter into any other business arrangement.
11. No license to a Party hereto, under any trademark, patent, copyright or any other intellectual property right, is either granted or implied by the conveying of Information to such Party.
12. None of the Information which may be disclosed or exchanged by the Parties shall constitute any representation, warranty, assurance, guarantee or other inducement by either Party to the other of any kind, and, in particular, with respect to the non-infringement of trade marks, patents, copyrights or any other intellectual property rights, or other rights of third parties. Neither Party's failure or delay to enforce any provision, right, or remedy under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of such provision, right, or remedy.
13. In carrying out its respective obligations under the Agreement, each Party shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations of the local country and of any other applicable country, including any country of export. Each Party agrees not to pay, promise to pay, or authorize the payment of any money or anything of value, whether directly or indirectly, to any person (whether a government official or private individual) for the purpose of illegally or improperly inducing any government official or any political party or official thereof to make an award decision or illegally or improperly to assist any of the Parties in obtaining or retaining business, or to take any other improper action favorable to any of the Parties in connection with the award of a license, permit, contract or other form of award or approval. The receiving Party shall adhere to any relevant export control laws and regulations with respect to the Information or products received from the disclosing Party. Any Party that fails to comply with this provision shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party from and against any claim, loss, damage, liability, expense, cost, of whatsoever nature arising out of or related to, or connected with such Party's failure to comply.
14. Subject to Article 4 above, neither Party shall assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without prior written consent of the other Party except Nokia to its Affiliates. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except by written amendments duly executed by the Parties. This requirement of written form can only be waived in writing.

15. This Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of New York excluding its rules for choice of law.
16. All disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall, unless amicably settled between the Parties, be finally settled by arbitration according to the Rules of Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association (“Rules”) by three arbitrators in accordance with the Rules. The seat of arbitration is New York City, New York. The procedural law of New York will apply to the extent the Rules are silent. The arbitration proceedings must be confidential and must be conducted in English. The award is final and binding on the Parties and enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Each Party shall be entitled to seek necessary and appropriate injunctive relief or any other temporary measures from the courts of competent jurisdiction to enjoin the other Party from taking certain actions which may infringe on the rights of the Party bringing such claim, provided that any proceedings and decisions as to the merits of the dispute, including permanent injunctions, are exclusively governed and resolved by arbitration in accordance with the first paragraph of this Article 16.

17. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by either handwritten signatures or e-signatures. By using e-signature to sign this Agreement, the parties acknowledge that execution in this manner creates a binding contract between the Parties.

IN WITNESS whereof the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly signed and executed in two original copies on the date written below.
