The product does not have enough space to place the label, and FCC ID label is reflected in the user manual and package, as below:

Manufacturer shall not in any way be liable to you or to any third party for any damages you or any third party may suffer as a result of use, intended or unintended, or misuse of this headphone in conjunction with any device or accessory other than the appropriate mobile device for which this headphone is designed. Manufacturer will not be responsible for any damages you or any third party may suffer as a result of misuse of this headphone as outlined above. If you are responsible for headphone use with an unintended mobile device and damages result from such use, you agree to indemnify Manufacturer for any resulting injuries to any third part(ies).

US COMPLIANCE

FCC Information FCC ID: 2AT06-HYPRRSONIC

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does use harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

If you cannot eliminate the interference, the FCC requires that you stop using your product. Changes or modifications not expressly by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.
