Subject: Declaration of need for professional installation

FCC ID: 2AUUC-DHAVAL and 2AUUC-MEGHDOOT

To Whom It May Concern:

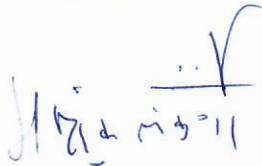

The above-mentioned client and base units of white space devices can only be purchased through Saankhya Labs Pvt Ltd (referred hereafter as the "Company") or authorized distribution partners (referred hereafter as "Partner") thereof.

This is done to ensure that the device is installed at the end users' site by professionals trained by the Company.

Such an arrangement has been necessitated due to nature of the equipment and specific knowledge related to functioning of the device. Although the steps for professional installation are covered in the manual, their correct execution cannot be guaranteed without completion of the training program conducted by the Company. The installation also requires intricate knowledge of the parameters programmed onto the device during bring up which is very specific to the implementation by the Company.

Installation and operation of the devices by persons other than the professional installers might cause permanent damage to the device and malfunction
