CE certification information (SAR)
This device was tested for typical body-worn operations with the back of the tablet kept 5.0cm away. To maintain compliance with RF exposure requirements, use accessories that maintain a 5.0cm separation distance between the user's body and the back of the tablet. The use of both clips, holsters and similar accessories should not contain metal components in its assembly. The use of accessories that do not satisfy these requirements may not comply with RF exposure requirements, and should be avoided.
If you are using powerbank, hearing aid, cochlear implant or other device, please use the tablet according to the doctor's advice.
Notice:
Observe national and local regulations where the device is used. This device may be restricted for use, depending on the local network. The operation frequency in 300-550MHz of Wi-Fi 5G are restricted to indoor usage only.
RF Exposure Information (SAR)
This tablet is designed and manufactured not to exceed the emission limits for exposure to radio frequency (RF) energy set by the Federal Communications Commission of the United States.
During SAR testing, this device was set to transmit at its highest certified power level in all tested frequency bands, and placed in positions that simulate RF exposure in near the body with the separation of 0 mm. Although the SAR is determined at the highest certified power level, the actual SAR level of the device while operating can be well below the maximum value. This is because the Tablet is designed to operate at multiple power levels so as to use only the power required to reach the network. In general, the closer you are to a wireless base station antenna, the lower the power output.

The exposure standard for wireless devices employing a unit of measurement is known as the Specific Absorption Rate, or SAR. The SAR limit set by the FCC is 1.6W/kg.
This device is certified with SAR for general population (uncontrolled exposure limits in ANSI/IEEE C95.1-1992 and had been tested in accordance with the measurement methods and procedures specified in IEEE 1528.
The FCC has granted an Equipment Authorization for this tablet with all reported SAR levels evaluated in compliance with the FCC RF exposure guidelines. SAR information on this tablet is on file with the FCC and can be found under the Display Grant section of www.fcc.gov/etf/ku folder after searching on FCC ID: Z4UW19P0000.
For this device, the highest reported SAR value for charge test the body is 1.93 W/kg.
While there may be differences between the SAR levels of various tablets and at various positions, they all meet the government requirements. SAR compliance for body-worn operation is based on a separation distance of 5.0 mm between the unit and the human body. Carry this device at least 5.0 mm away from your body to ensure RF exposure level complies or lower to the reported level. To support body-worn operation, choose the built clips or holsters, which do not contain metallic components, to maintain a separation of 5.0 mm between this device and your body.
RF exposure compliance with any body-worn accessories, which contain metal, was not tested and certified, and use such body-worn accessory should be avoided.
