

FCC WARNING

any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation. conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two could void the user's authority to operate the equipment. Any changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance

If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide correct the interference by one or more of the following measures: which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment NOTE: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- -- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technic ian for help.

To maintain compliance with FCC's only the supplied antenna. installed and operated with minimum distance between 20cm the radiator your body: Use RF Exposure guidelines, This equipment should be