

Statement

We Portrait Displays, Inc are resuming the responsibility on the certified product for additional new Model Number and product name.

Original product name (Unchanged): PatternForge

Original model (Unchanged): GENPPF

Original trademark (Unchanged): N/A

Add New product name: G1

Add New model: GENG1

Add New trademark: The logo for Portrait Displays G1 features a stylized red 'P' icon to the left of the text 'portrait displays' in a lowercase sans-serif font, with 'G1' in a large, bold, red sans-serif font to the right.

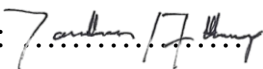

We hereby state that the original model and add new model are identical in interior structure, and electrical circuits; the differences for two models are the silk screen, Model Number, and antenna. the new model GENG1 is a distinct and separate product from the original model GENPPF. The new model GENG1 incorporates a different model number and antenna design. The original test results for the model GENPPF remain valid and are unaffected by the introduction of the new model GENG1. We affirm that the original model GENPPF remains unaltered, and its certification is independent of the certification sought for Original test results continue to be representative of and applicable to the new Number.

Your assistance on this matter is highly appreciated.
