Subject: Monitoring Transmission Duration and the Frequency of Download Occurrences

Reference: Applicant: Hannaford LLC, FCC ID: A8Z-2690

To Whom It May Concern:

To address continued compliance in regard to RF exposure requirements, Hannaford LLC and its content provider will monitor downloads to ensure the device is within the upper bound limitation. The upper bound transmission duty factor will be less than 12.8%.

In the event the transmission duty factor exceeds the conditions stated above, Hannaford LLC will file a Class II permissive change application and seek an approval based upon conditions observed.
